

Deadline: February 15, 2022

Adviser Professional Development Grant Application

In its continuing effort to provide enrichment opportunities for its members and to further the cause of scholastic journalism, WJEA announces its 2022 Adviser Professional Development Grant. WJEA will provide grants for one inexperienced adviser and one experienced adviser to attend workshops of their choice during the year 2022. Winning advisers must be WJEA members; previous recipients may apply again after three years. Winners will be announced in early March, 2022. The scholarships may be used for conference fees and travel, but not to acquire equipment or classroom materials.

Interested advisers please submit application by mail or email to:

WJEA Headquarters • PO Box 24389 • Seattle WA 98124 • wjeaexecutivedirector@gmail.com

Name _____ Phone _____

Home address _____ City _____ Zip _____

Preferred email _____

School/School District _____

Media advised (check one or more): N Y B Other _____

Years teaching _____ Years advising _____ Other subjects taught _____

Applying for (check one): Less experienced (1-3 years) Experienced (3+ years)

Please supply names and addresses of:

Principal Name _____ Email: _____

Local media: _____

Contact information: _____

In a separate document, please thoroughly answer the following:

1. Why should you be selected to receive this scholarship? How will this scholarship benefit you?
2. What conference(s) or workshop(s) are you considering?
3. How will the scholarship benefit you/your teaching program?
4. How will you be willing to share with others in WJEA the information you acquire (writing website articles; teaching; volunteering at spring and summer conferences; accepting leadership positions in WJEA; mentoring; etc.)?

NOTE: This form is available online as an editable PDF at wjea.org, under Scholarships and Awards – Adviser Scholarships.