

Deadline: February 15, 2023

Washington Journalism Education Association

Washington State Student Journalist of the Year

2023 State Award and Robin Morris Scholarship for $2,000

WJEA's Student Journalist of the Year winner will be the Washington state entry in the national Journalism Education Association's "Sister Rita Jeanne High School Journalist of the Year" scholarship competition. WJEA will enter the Washington state winner's online portfolio and application materials to the national committee for judging. The national winner will be announced at the JEA/NSPA national spring convention in April. Top national award is $3,000 in scholarship funds. Runners up are each awarded $850.

The Washington state winner will be announced during the WJEA State Conference Award Ceremony on March 4, 2023 at Mountlake Terrace High School. The winner will receive the Robin Morris Scholarship for $2,000 regardless of whether he/she earns an award at the national level.

ENTRY CRITERIA

1. Applicant is a graduating high school senior.
2. Applicant has participated in student media for at least two years.
3. Applicant has earned a 3.0 GPA minimum on a 4.0 scale.
4. Adviser is a current WJEA and JEA member.
5. Applicant has submitted an online portfolio according to JEA guidelines.

REQUIRED MATERIALS

JEA and WJEA now require all portfolios to be submitted online only; no hard copies accepted. To prepare a portfolio, follow the national portfolio guidelines EXACTLY as described on the JEA National Journalist of the Year official application site at: <http://jea.org/wp/home/awards-honors/journalist-of-the-year/>. See the links on the right sidebar of the JEA JOY page for further information about how to create an online portfolio and to view samples and judging rubrics. Be sure to watch the Joy Guidelines Video, updated for the 2023 contest.

Important note: If you are also applying for WJEA's Outstanding Journalist (Lu Flannery Scholarship) award, make sure the portfolios are separate and the links to each are clear and submitted separately.

SUBMISSION: You must email the following documents and the completed entry form as attachments to WJEA J.O.Y Chair, Annie Green, by February 15, 2023 to annie.green@sno.wednet.edu:

1. Entry Form (continue to page 2 from here)
2. A high school transcript or a counselor's statement including journalism classes taken, grades and current GPA (PDF of 2MB or less)
3. Two photos: An action photo of applicant involved in some aspect of student media and a head/shoulders shot (JPG of 1MB or less)
4. Three letters of recommendation from those who know the applicant well and understand the impact of the journalistic experience on the student's life (each a PDF of 2MB or less)
5. Current resume (PDF of 2MB or less)
6. Self-analytical essay (follow JEA Journalist of the Year guidelines.)

Deadline: February 15, 2023

Washington Journalism Education Association

Washington State Student Journalist of the Year

ENTRY FORM (fillable on screen)

WJEA 2023 STATE J.O.Y. AWARD / ROBIN MORRIS SCHOLARSHIP: $2,000

Student name _____

Preferred email _____ Phone _____

Link to online portfolio (URL): _____

Street address/City _____ Zip _____

Parent/Gurardian name(s) _____

Parent/Guardian email _____ Phone _____

School _____

School address _____ Zip _____

School phone _____ Adviser's Phone _____

Instagram handle(s) _____ (both student media & personal accounts, if applicable)

Adviser's Name _____ Adviser's Email _____

Does Adviser hold JEA Certification? CJE MJE No

Hometown newspaper or community news website name _____

URL _____

Mailing Address _____ Zip _____

Complete this entry form as a fillable PDF online (available at wjea.org) or complete in pen and scan it. When your online portfolio is complete, email this entry form as an attachment with the other materials identified above to:

Annie Green, MJE, WJEA J.O.Y. Award chair: annie.green@sno.wednet.edu

Please use the subject line "JOY application," and provide a sentence or two of introduction in the body of the email.